Kingdom Entrepreneurs Presents
Ladies of Royalty Impact Women's Business & Empowerment Conference
Benefiting Girls, Inc.

Birmingham, AL will unite some of the most affluent and influential women business owners, financial experts, health professionals, and spiritual leaders in the country at the 2013 Kingdom Entrepreneurs (KEi) Ladies of Royalty Impact Women's Business and Empowerment Conference. Entrepreneurs will be equipped, educated, and empowered with business strategies and tools to develop, grow, and expand their business, along with life principles that will promote balance in faith, family, and finance.

The 2013 KEi Ladies of Royalty Impact Women's Business and Empowerment Conference will be held at the Birmingham Jefferson Civic Center on March 9 and will honor some of Alabama's most influential women in business trailblazing within the marketplace. Attendees will receive one day of power packed information which will include business strategy breakout sessions, a compelling Q & A panel discussion, business to business network opportunity, strategies to grow in a challenging market and much more.

"As an entrepreneur our individual purpose in life is not to just build big businesses but to be a Kingdom example and a beacon of light to those we encounter." says Yakinea Marie, President and CEO of (KEi)

Yakinea Marie Duff, Founder of Y. Marie Ministries and President and CEO of Kingdom Entrepreneurs International, LLC, is an inspirational speaker and entrepreneur who has a passion for helping people reach their full potential. She has a heart for giving to those who are making a mark in the lives of others. KEi will have the honor of donating a percentage of its proceeds to benefit Girls Inc, which inspires all girls to be strong, smart, and bold.

Kingdom Entrepreneurs International's mission is to equip, educate, and empower business owners and aspiring entrepreneurs with the strategies and tools they need dominate in the marketplace, as well as in life by affecting change in the lives of every person they encounter.
